ACWW is an association of women-led societies and groups working collectively for the shared vision of an improved quality of life for women and communities worldwide.

With 420 member societies in 77 countries, ACWW gives voice to over 9 million rural and non-rural women.

ACWW believes that through cooperation and understanding we can empower our members to create opportunities for women to exercise more power, make better decisions and change their own lives for the better.

Our new FRIENDSHIP LINKS programme is intended to bring together members and societies across the globe, offering connections through letters, emails, newsletters, and social media- you choose how you are contacted, and how you speak to your new friends. All you have to do is complete the form below and send it back to us, then we'll start linking you with other ACWW supporters.

We understand that some people love to write to each other using good old-fashioned pen and paper, and others would prefer to send an email whilst on their way to work- others still favouring Facebook or Twitter to send messages or even just exchange photos using Instagram. We are keen to help you communicate, whatever your chosen method is.

Please note that correspondence is carried out in the official language of ACWW, which is English.
